VOL. 14, NUMBER 105 MONESSEN, PA, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 14 1915 SIX CENTS THE WEEK

The fall season is here. This country has arranged to loan $500,000,000 to Great Britain and France. Are you still croaking hard times? Maybe a little judgment and business push would help you.

Important Changes In Local Business District

Through a deal completed this morning, George Skurkay purchased the entire stock and fixtures of the Donner avenue durg store of C. A. Light. Mr. Skurkay intends removing the stock to the new storeroom in the Dr. Geo. T. Barben building on Fifth street and will conduct the drug store in the future under his own personal management.

A force of workmen are now busily engaged in removing the stock and fixtures and Mr. Skurkay expects to be open and ready for business by the first of November. The new proprietor graduated from the University of Pittsburgh with the class of 1914 and is fully qualified to conduct this lnie of business. He is a popular young man in this community and his many friends are certain that he will make a success of his venture.

The Donner avenue storeroom in which Mr. Light conducted a drug store for a number of years will be remodeled at once and according to reports, the McCrory Five & Ten Cent store company will open one of their chain of stores here. It is understood that they have secured a long lease on the building and will make this one of their leading establishments, as the storeroom is one of the largest in the city. Mr. Light, who retires from the drug business, has not yet made definite plans for the future, but will probably remain in the city.

Expert Won Match

Charles McCourt, the expert three cushion billiard player was the attraction at the Olympic billiard parlor last evening. His opponent, the first twenty-five balls was James Schumm, who was able to make 6 points, while in the last twenty-five balls, W. R. Mitz secured 9 p oints for a total of 15 points against McCourt's 50.

Held For Murder

Although George Myers of Connellsville, was exonerated in the killing of James Zorn, a B. & O. engineer, recently, by a Westmoreland county coroner's jury, Deputy Coroner D. M. Kier of Allegheny county, held an inquest into the death of Zorn on Monday and that jury recommended that Myers be held for the murder. The evidence presented to the Westmoreland county jury was to the effect that it was an accidental shooting. The record of the Allegheny county jury will be forwarded to the officials of this county for action. There seems to be a question as to the legality of the Allegheny jury in the case. The shooting, whether accidental or not, was done in Westmoreland county, at a point near Reduction station. Deputy Coroner Potts claims that the coroner of this county had jurisdiction only. The man died in the McKeesport hospital.

Campbell Released

A formal hearing in the case against R. H. Campbell of North Charleroi, who was arrested a few days ago in connection with the theft and subsequent wrecking of the Buick car of P. C. Teeple, was to have been held Tuesday afternoon before Alderman John H. Wiper, but when the time came for the hearing, the justice released Mr. Campbell stating that there was no evidence whatsoever against him and that a formal hearing was unnecessary.

This completely exonerates the accused man, but at the same time does not entirely remove the stigma of arrest and confinement for some hours in the lockup. It has been an embarrassing position for the prosecutors and both Mr. Teeple, who owned the car and Mr. Alten who represented the insurance company, deplore the arrest most keenly.

The prosecution grew out of erroneous information furnished the prosecutors and the newspapers which could not be substantiated in any degree.

From the start Mr. Campbell's friends throughout the valley scouted the idea of his guilt and declared that it could not be correct. Mr. Campbell will continue to do business in this district and feels that his vindication is complete.

Elopement

Local people will be surprised to learn of the elopement this morning of Walter Scales and Miss Mary Carnes. Everything had been evidently arranged by the prospective groom who made arrangements to be away from his work for the day and in company with another couple left in a touring car for the home of Miss Carnes. Up until this morning they had not given their secret even to their most intimate friends, and were well on their way to Wellsburg, W. Va.,this morning before relatives were informed of their intentions. Mr. Scales is employed in the office of the American Sheet & Tin Plate mill and has a host of friends here. Miss Carnes is one of the popular young girls of this vicinity and resides with her parents, east of town on the new brick road. She has been a student at the Douglas Business College. They will probably return here this evening and will make this their future home.

Benefit Concert

The Louhi band will give a concert in the High school auditorium Friday evening, November 5, the proceeds of which will be for the benefit of the public library. An added attraction to the concert will be the appearance of a noted Pittsburgh soloist who will render several selections. Director George Wahlstrom is in Pittsburgh today arranging for this part of the evening's entertainment, and the full program will be published within a few days.

The Louhi band is recognized as one of the leading musical organizations in the valley and delighted large audiences during the summer at the Sixth street park band stand. They have donated their services for this occasion and the public should turn out and assist in the worthy cause. The entire proceeds will be used in adding new books to the library which is located in the Jefferson building and which is open to the public.

Censors Strict

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 14—Stringent rules "to keep motion pictures attuned ta public opinion" have been laid down by the State Board of Motion Picture Censors in the new rules and regulations just issued. The board consists of J. L. Breitlinger, Ellis Paxson Oberholtzer and Mrs. E. C. Niver.

The first rule states that the board will "aim to eliminate everything which shall tend to debase morals or inflame the mind to improper adventures or to establish false standards of conduct. Sacrilege, death and depressing scenes "unduly emphasized" and grewsome subjects are put under objection and barroom scenes must be used with discretion.

The board gives notics that it will lean to the conservative in dealing with comedy costuming. Plays showing infidelity are not considered a legitimate subject and the board says it will "insist that problems of sex shall be treated with seriousness and reserve."

Salspick stunts must be wholesome. No plays holding up to ridicule any sect or which tend to show loose morals are to be attempted. Pictures showing women drinking and smoking will be carefully judged. Pictures showing habit forming from use of drugs are not considered in the movie field at all.

Prefers Jail Sentence To Work On Streets

Thomas Clark who gave his home as Fayette City and his age as 62 years, was committed to the county jail today for a period of thirty days as a punishment for vagrancy. Clark in company with Ed. Cochran, about the same age, who claims to hail from Johnstown has been spending some time begging about town.

Both men were picked up by the police yesterday in an intoxicated condition and confined in the borough lockup all night. They admitted being drunk, but denied the vagrancy charge.

Burgess Dunlap sentenced them to each pay a fine of $3.00 and costs or work three days on the streets. Clark refused to carry out the sentence, telling the burgess boldly that he would not work on the streets. The burgess then changed the sentence to read 30 days to the county jail. Clark replied "help yourself." He was taken to Greensburg today by Constable A. J. Smith.

Seriously Ill

Mrs. Alex Labin, Jr., formerly Miss Edna Areford of Carmichaels, whose husband died about two weeks ago, just two days after their marriage is at the home of Mr. Labin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Labin, Sr., at Brownsville, in a very serious condition, suffering from shock. Little hope is entertained for her recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Labin were married September 29. They went to Silverton, W. Va. for their honeymoon, and while there on Friday, two days after he had become a bridegroom, Mr. Labin died of acute indigestion. Ever since the death of her young husband, Mrs. Labin has been in a state of collapse and her life is now despaired of.

The Straight Ticket

It will be surprising for some of those Democratic office seekers when the returns come in on the morning of November Third. They will be surprised when they see the vote of Monessen and think how nice they were treated over here and how few votes were cast for the party of free trade. It would be foolishness for this town to help put Democrats in county offices. There would be nothing gained. The town has been Republican all its life and has stuck closer to the principles of that party than any other town in the county.

Our great mills are monuments to the progressive policies of the Republican party. They were built here under the McKinley administration and tney reflect the memory of that martyred statesman and his far famed tariff bill which brought this country out of the throes of one of the most distressing panics in its history at the close of the Cleveland administration. Who wants a repetition of that sad experience?

Certainly not the Monessen people. Yet we would be having just such an experience today were it not for the industrial prosperity caused by the outbreak of the European war. Factories are now busy turning out war munitions, but at the close of the war there is bound to be a reaction in this country unless prevented by a conservative Republican protective tariff. It is this ambition that makes the leaders of that party so active at present. Everywhere independent Republicans and Washington party people have joined the standpatters in order to avoid a continuation of the Democratic free trade policies which have paralyzed American industries and thrown laborers out of employment. To all Republicans there should be but one common enemy.

There should be no split in the ranks this year for the presidential campaign of 1916 is almost upon us. Democrats are getting ready to elect the congressmen next year. They hope to do it through any dissatisfaction that may exist among Republicans over the primary election. If a man has been defeated, Democratic candidates first hunt up the man and try to line him up, then his friends are asked to throw aside the principles of their party and help boost a Democrat into office. This is the way they hope to get hold of sufficient prestige to carry forward a national movement.

So it behooves every town, every county and every state to be on the lookout and go past any temporary feelings or sympathies and view the future prosperity of the country as the leading reason why each Republican voter should be loyal to the party. Let Monessen get in line as a Republican stronghold and when the votes are counted, let it not be said that this town assisted in a Democratic victory.

A Submarine Attack

At our county seat there is now brewing what will result in an awful newspaper gangle. Dry interests have taken over the News Record and before the paper has time to clean out its hell box and fire the devil, the Tribune, nemenian like,jumps on it with both feet. The Tribune always seeks an unfair advantage and unless it can stand on the high ground it won't fight. Had it intended to be fair it would have refrained from any unsavory comment until the force of the new paper could be changed and the policy fixed.

The News-Record however seems to be fairly well able to take cars of itself even under the embarrassing situation through which it has had to pass on account of the change of ownership and management.

The maligning tactics of the Tribune have been especially nauseating to the press of the county. It has no defined policy wherein there is a principle involved, but seeks to further its own interests financially in all of its skirmishes. It lauds to the skies officials it controls by its domineering methods and condemns to Hades those who refuse to be subservient. It supports the Republican party as long as its slate wins in the nomination, but is silent when its enemies get on the ticket. It made a slate in the recent primary election, but the voters broke it to smithereens, and now it forgets the nominees of the Republican party and goes over to the non-partisan judge fight where it proceeds to get busy.

If the News-Record enters the field of journalism in Westmoreland county with a policy outlined that involves a principle, the profession will welcome it whether they agree with everything it says or not, and a square deal will be accorded it, in the face of the fact that the Tribune grossly insulted it in the outstart. But keep your hands off the Governor boys, for Bob owns the state machine, picks, shovels and steam roller.

After stooping it was hard to regain an erect position and often the pains almost took one's breath away. Headaches were almost constant and black spots floated before the eyes. A number of medicines failed to bring help and Doan's Kidney Pills were finally procured at the Hirsch Drug Co. The first box brought relief and three boxes made a cure."

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

AND THE WORST IS YET TO COME
I WILL VOTE TO PROTECT OUR HOME
THE BURGLAR'S UNIONS HAVE ALL ENDORSED SUFFRAGE. LET MOTHER GO TO THE POLLS

A HUMAN INTEREST STORY FOR WOMEN

(Editorial from the Philadelphia Inquirer)

A very pretty little human interest story comes out of the state of Washington. It ought to appeal to most women—certainly to all wives. Husbands, too, may not be uninterested.

The story is taken from the Spokesman Review, of Spokane, and here it is:

"While the law is so stern that it refuses the mother permission to go to her baby while she is doing jury duty, there is nothing to prevent a baby's going to its mother, at least that is how the law was interpreted in the court of Judge Huneke when baby Margaret Hackett went to the court house for her dinner.

"Father rushed Margaret, aged three months, in an automobile to the court house. Mother gave baby her six o'clock meal, and father and infant retired, subject to hurry calls during the night. Mrs. Hackett was serving on a jury which failed to agree."

Comment does not seem to be necessary. If the women of Pennsylvania and across the Delaware in New Jersey want that sort of thing, why, that is just what they want.

From a letter written by Justice William A. Huneke, of the superior court of Washington, for the county of Spokane.

"Briefly, the facts are that a mother of a young child became a juror for the trial of a civil case. After the case had been submitted to the jury, the juror's husband came to me, stating that she had a child but a few months old which ought to be nursed by its mother, and requested that she be permitted to go to her home for that purpose. I told him that as the case had been submitted to the jury that a separation of the jury could not be allowed, but that the child might be brought to the court house and nursed by the mother in the presence of a woman bailiff. It was a bad night and the mother had the bailiff telephone the father not to bring the child because of the inclement weather. So the fact is that the child was not brought to the court house."

BABY MISSED ITS MEAL

(Editorial from the Philadelphia Inquirer)

The other day we printed in these columns a bit of a human interest story taken from the Spokesman Review, a newspaper of Spokane, state of Washington. According to the story, Baby Margaret, aged three months, was hungry. It was six o'clock in the afternoon, and Baby Margaret's mother was tied up on a jury. Washington is one of the states where women vote. Naturally, the mother could not go to Baby Margaret, but Baby Margaret could go to mother. The Spokane newspaper reported that the father of the infant rushed the child in an automobile to the court house, where it was nursed.

The point of the story, of course was to show the delights of jury service—the enjoyment that women of Pennsylvania can look forward to when they are given the ballot. But, somehow, some of the active suffragettes didn't like the story. Dr. Anna Shaw wrote to the judge who was sitting at the time and the judge tells a different tale. It seems that he gave permission to the father to bring the child to court, where it could be "nursed by the mother in the presence of a woman bailiff." But it seems that the night was a bad one and the mother had the bailiff telephone not to take it out in that sort of weather.

From which it would appear that Baby Margaret, instead of being nicely fed, missed her meal entirely, and, since the judge failed to say how long the jury remained tied up, she may be hungry yet, for all we know.

We are glad to make the correction in the interest of history. * * *

A mere refusal to do jury service would not work out in Pennsylvania. Here, if women are given the ballot, they will be subject to jury calls, and to escape they must have legitimate excuses such as would satisfy the judges after hearing them.

But we do not think that they need worry just yet.

WHY WORKING WOMEN OPPOSE SUFFRAGE

That the women of all classes are responding to the call of the anti-suffragists is evident by the organization of the Wage Earners' Anti-Suffrage League, of New York, an organization of 4000 women who are employed in "store, factory and shop."

When Miss Marjorie Dorman, the founder of the Wage Earners' Anti-Suffrage League, was working among the labor unions and shops of Philadelphia recently, she told of why this organization was formed.

"When I was a sales girl," she stated, "I observed how much more tired it made the girls to work overtime than the boys. Also, how much more it affected women to stand on their feet all day. The floor walkers could stand 'till the cows come home,' and seem all the straighter and stronger for it, but the girls could not do it.

"A little later, I was employed in a large press room, where the women worked just the same as the men as regards hours. At the end of the long days, the men would go home fresh, while the girls would be tired out, nervous and unstrung. After we got the nine-hour law, the girls went home at six o'clock, and if there was any overtime work to be done, the men did it. An improvement in the health and disposition of the girls was noticeable at once.

"Now, this fact that women are physically weaker is the only plea on which we can ask for special legislation. We cannot ask for 'equality' with men before the law, because women cannot stand such equality. Every law on the statute books that protects men—except in certain dangerous occupations in which no women are allowed—also applies to women, but we have many laws for the protection of women that men do not share at all. There is not one suffrage state that has given working women the kindest act of all, granting a mother six to eight weeks rest when she bears her child. Yet four of the eastern states where men only vote, have passed such acts. The suffragists have actually appeared before legislative committees to protest against protective laws for women only, saying that they want the men 'to forget that they are women.' It will be a sad day for the women of this country if the men ever forget that women are women, and entitled to special protection in industry."

CHASING AFTER VOTES

A prominent Pennsylvania politician tells the following story "As I watch the women suffragists in their campaigns, I am reminded of a little dog we used to have. Every time an automobile came in sight, she dashed out after it until she was exhausted and left behind, but she would always return to the chase, with much noise and barking, whenever another car appeared. And yet that pup didn't have the least idea of what she could do with a car, even if she caught it."

TO ABOLISH FREE LIST

The editor of an Eastern paper has grown peevish. He has been pestered so much by people desiring free puffs that he facetiously refers to himself as the "Peerless Prince of Puff Purveyors." He thinks he has done enough for social queens, ministers who are looking for free advertising, people who have legislative fads they wish to push and organizations which want free publicity. So he has evolved the following scale of prices for puffs:

For telling the public that a man is a successful citizen, when everybody knows he is as lazy as a hired man, $2.70.

Referring to a deceased citizen as one who is mourned by the entire community, when he will only be missed by the poker circle, $10,13.

Refering to one as a hero and a man of courage and one who will stand by his honest convictions, when everybody knows that he is a moral coward and would sell out for thirty cents, $6.21.

Referring to some gallivanting female as an estimable lady whom it is a pleasure to meet and know, when every man in town would sooner see Satan coming, $8.10.

Calling an ordinary pulpit orator an eminent divine, 60 cents.

Sending a doughty sinner to Heaven, $5.

Referring to a deceased merchant who never advertised in his life as a progressive citizen, $4.99.

Lambasting the daylights out of the demon rum at the bequest of the local prohibition committee, $6.77.

Ditto for the prohibitionists at the request of the local wet committee, $6.77.

SEVEN MILLION PENNSYLVANIANS TAKE A HOLIDAY

Figures compiled by the State Department of Health show that practically every man, woman and child in Pennsylvania has attended a fair, a picnic, camp meeting or gone to an amusement park at sometime during the summer and fall months.

Early last spring Commissioner of Health, Samuel G. Dixon ordered an inspection of all fair grounds, picnic grounds, camp meeting groves, amusement parks and recreation camps throughout the state, in order that the patrons of these places of entertainment might be protected from faulty sanitary arrangements, impure drinking water supplies, and similar menaces to health. This work has been progressing steadily during the entire summer and up to the present time more than eight hundred inspections have been made in all parts of the state. In many instances the Commissioner of Health has detailed special inspectors who have been present on fair grounds, etc., to check up conditions and promptly call the attention of officials to any failure to observe the public laws and regulations. Reports show that great improvement has been brought about.

In one instance when the inspectors called the attention of the management of one of the larger fairs to the fact that public drinking cups were prohibited, three hundred and fifty thousand paper cups were immediately purchased and one handed to every individual who bought an admission ticket. Men were also stationed at the fountains to give out cups to those who desired them.

Unsanitary conditions were reported on two hundred and ninety one of the properties inspected and orders for the abatement of these were immediately giver and follow-up inspections showed that the Department's orders had been complied with in every instance.

The attendance at the various classes of amusement places, is estimated at more than five millions for the season. In the eighty-three fair grounds the official attendance record for the past year was one million five camp meeting grounds the estimated attendance was three hundred and thirty-two thousand, and at four hundred and thirteen recreation camps, thirty-one thousand five hundred occupants were listed.

MONESSEN PA. OLYMPIC HOME OF THE PIPE ORGAN

Following is the program of the Olympic theatre for week beginning Monday, Oct. 11 and ending Saturday Oct. 16—:

REGULAR PROGRAM

THURSDAY—"The Sheriff of Red Rock Gulch," a 2 reel Big U. Always we have the best from the Big U Universal. "Lady Baffles and D. D. in "The Ore Mystery" with Max Asher and Gale Henry, a Powers comedy. "Avenged by a Fish" with Gribbon and Emory, L KO comedy.

FRIDAY—"The Wolf of Debt" with William Garwood and Violet Mersereau. Here is asplendid production, one that would go on its wonderful setting and photography alone. But there is a lot more to it than that. To be sure one of the big punches is accomplished by means of night photography in a rain storm, but the story is there with a punch all the time. Handsome Billy Garwood as the deserted husband of pretty Violet Mersereau shows himself very much of a man, and will win your applause when he chases the run-a-way wife and her lover on foot through a terrible storm. He is big enough and man enough to bring matters to the right conclusion with one of the most effective climaxes ever seen on the screen.

SATURDAY—"The Ghost Wagon," in three reels. Every movie fan loves a western story on the screen if it's good. And he knows when he sees a good thing. Some of the bunko stuff put out as a western drama would make a horse laugh, but the Universal actors must know how to ride, and so there is a real thrill in "The Ghost Wagon" for every foot of film. Animated Weekly No. 156. The Strand theatre of New York, the best one in the world, runs the Animated Weekly for two years. So it must be good and you know it, too.

Predicts President Wilson's Future

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 14—April 28 last while Prof Don Show Kodama of Tokyo, was visiting on this coast, he predicted that President Wilson would wed a widow aged about 40 years and that the couple would reside in New York, have a long and happy life and be blessed with two children, both daughters. In speaking, through an interpreter of the president, Prof. Kodama said: "I have just had a dream or vision of Woodrow Wilson. In it I see that the president will wed a widow some time before next March. She will be aged 40 years. They will live in New York, after the marriage and after Mr. Wilson's term expires, as he will not be re-elected. Their life will be long and happy and they will be blessed with two daughters."

Dr Joseph Kalbfus, secretary of the Board of Game Commissioners of Pennsylvania, has issued a notice to all hunters, calling attention to the fact that Westmoreland county has been closed to deer or elk for a period of three years, begining Dec. 1, 1913. The penalty for killing an elk contrary to this regulation is $100. The county has been stocked with deer by the state, but the county has no elk. Dr. Kalbfus is especially anxious that all sportmen not only obey the law themselves, but help in all ways to have the law respected by others.
